

2008 FUNDRAISING INCENTIVES

The Oregon Law Enforcement Torch Run has an incentive program for fund raising participants. While we all realize that we are doing this for the Special Olympics athletes, these incentives are just a small way to give recognition to those fundraisers that raise higher levels of donations.

These incentives provide an effective recognition method for individual participants and also increase awareness of the Torch Run throughout your agencies. As your participants raise money for Special Olympics Oregon, their efforts will not only be rewarded with a strong sense of goodwill, but with some exciting prizes as well.

Honor Roll: Agencies that reach the Honor Roll level will get the name of their agency on the back of the 2008 shirt, receive a recognition plaque and be listed on the LETR website.

Ways to help your agency raise $1,500 and get your agency onto the Honor Roll:

- Recruit Sponsors
- Runner's Contributions
- Sell Harley Raffle Tickets
- T-Shirt Sales
- Hold a Tip-A-Cop
- Hold a Cop-on-Top Event!
- Participate in a State-Wide Event like Cops-On-Doughnut-Shops
- Host a Golf Tournament

Top Fundraisers:

- The top three fundraising agencies will be able to send a representative to the LETR Conference, free of charge to the Agency.
- New this year! The two agencies that raise the most money per Full Time Employee (FTE) will also be able to send a representative to the LETR Conference, free of charge to the Agency. Please make sure to indicate how many FTE's your agency has when turning in your revenue reporting form.

This year's conference will be held in Dallas, Texas from October 29-November 2, 2008! This is a fantastic and fun-filled week!! The deadline for this is August 31, 2008.
